

Lullaby of the Stars - Lyrics only

A

Night black as raven's wing
Earth sleeps; the angels sing an ev'ning lullaby.
The clouds begin to sway
As tiny cherubs play among the stars.
So close your sleepy eyes
Sweet dreams and lullabies
As shining stars and moon-beams
Appear in view.

B

A choir of angels serenade the stars
Floating, twinkling, glowing, blinking
Like fire-flies in jars
New dawning, new morning
Sleepy stars are yawning
Goodnight, goodnight.
Goodnight, goodnight.
