

News from Nowhere

Verse 1

Once upon a time
There was a man who gave it all
He had nothing to his name
But the wind and the waves at his feet

With a word he knew the water
And the water knew his heart
It would have joined him in the desert
If he had let it

Chorus X 2

It is sweet to the taste
It's music to my soul
It is wind to my waves
Peace now be still

Verse 2

Once upon a time
There was a man who killed my rage
Broken and crushed like the vintage
We put in the barrels

There's a fire that is burning
An' it doesn't feel the cold
An' the voice that is speaking
Will fall on deaf ears if it has to

New Zealander Graeme James is a talented multi-instrumentalist, coming from a musical family (brother Jonathan is a classical composer), and played classical violin for 10 years before giving it up due to shoulder injuries. He then turned his attention to the guitar, and song writing.
